DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1-8 and 15, drawn to a battery charger and a battery control device, classified in class 320, subclass 107.
  - II. Claims 9-14, drawn to a method of controlling battery power, classified in class 320, subclass 163.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product. See MPEP § 806.05(h). In the instant case the process can be used in a materially different process such as one that does not prevent current flow in a reverse direction or does not require a battery control loop.
3. In Group I, this application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species: Claim 1-3 and 15 – Species 1; claims 4-8 – Species 2. The species are independent or distinct because species 2 does not require the prevention of current flow, while species 1 does not require the battery control loop.

If applicant elects Group I, applicant is FURTHER required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claims are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).
